

As a recently licensed amateur radio operator (K3TDH) I am concerned that BPL initiative would cause significant interference sufficient to make the HF frequencies useless for emergency and recreational communications. Having read numerous comments from various organizations, such as the ARRL, I would hope that the FCC would take steps to not promote BPL to protect the existing spectrum.

Thank You
Teresa Heath